

ABOUT MWB SOUP KITCHENS

MORE THAN JUST WARM MEALS

For people facing extreme poverty, finding food for themselves and their families can be all-consuming. There is a deep fear that takes hold when you don't know where your next meal will come from.

Mission Without Borders runs soup kitchens in 6 countries, providing this basic need for people facing homelessness, unemployment, brokenness, abandonment and disabilities. The volunteers who support this work, take the time to listen and share the love of Jesus with those they serve.

TRANSFORMING LIVES WITH HOPE FOR THE FUTURE

*"Can you imagine our lives without your support? We have not only received warm meals, but care, support and warm words."
Hanke, Albania*

Mission Without Borders has been actively involved in partnering with churches in Eastern Europe since the 1960s.

MWB's Soup Kitchens are situated in places where there is deep poverty, high unemployment, little social support for the elderly, people struggling with addictions and hopelessness. Vulnerable people such as the housebound elderly, single parents under great stress, and children neglected by their parents, all receive a warm welcome and a refuge at our Soup Kitchens.

Many of the kitchens are located in local churches, where families can gather in a warm and inviting place to share a meal and connect with the volunteers and one another. In some communities where people are housebound, disabled, or elderly and unable to attend the church, volunteers visit them in their homes, bringing a warm meal and friendship.

Street Mercy operates mobile soup kitchens in Bulgaria and Moldova, serving meals to homeless people in parks 5-6 days a week. There is a time for prayer and Bible reading for those who want it, as well as time to talk and encourage one another, along with a hot meal that can be eaten on site or taken away.
